The Honorable Clarence M. Kelley
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Kelley:

25X1

☐ Thank you for your letter of 26 October 1977 advising me that the services of the Interagency Telephone Laboratory (ITL) are now available to the Intelligence Community.

25X1

☐ As you know, the Community has been without such a facility for several years now, and I am pleased that once again we have the capability to perform these vital technical assessments of the security threats posed by commercial telephone systems utilized throughout the world.
